Ms. Young,

I am in the process of finding the status of those systems. Hopefully I'll have something by the end of the day.

One more question. Sorry about the slew of emails. Of the three that are have damage, are they operating on backup pumps & are the collection systems still overflowing?

Ms. Young,

I didn't see the City of Pasadena Golden Acres Plant at first (WQ0010053011). Status is operational.
